

“My ultimate goal is to reveal purged sculpture and naked truth. I always watch fascinated when pure light falls on a peaceful substance, which does not disturb its beauty and sweetness. This is because the light reflects peacefully and sincerely off the surface of such a substance....

Adam, God's first man, was made naked....”